- 2022 Arborum Proprietary White ($125): This white blend dazzles with its aromatic complexity, featuring bright notes of citrus, white peach, and honeysuckle. Crisp and refreshing, with a vibrant acidity, it's an elegant wine that pairs beautifully with seafood or light fare.
- 2021 Arborum Proprietary Red ($265): A robust and layered red blend, showcasing ripe dark fruits, cocoa, and a hint of spice. Its bold tannins and rich texture provide a decadent drinking experience, while its complexity hints at a long aging potential. Perfect for special occasions.
- 2021 Bella Oaks Le Genie ($160): Crafted from the historic Bella Oaks vineyard, this wine offers a graceful balance of red fruit, spice, and herbal notes. Its silky texture is complemented by refined tannins, creating a smooth and lingering finish. Ideal for those who appreciate a more nuanced Cabernet.

- 2021 Annulus Beckstoffer Las Piedras Cabernet Sauvignon ($250): A powerful expression of Napa Valley's rich terroir, this Cabernet offers deep, concentrated flavors of black currant and dark cherry, balanced with elegant tannins. Its pedigree from the Beckstoffer Las Piedras vineyard ensures complexity with earthy, mineral undertones. A wine built for aging, it's as sophisticated as it is bold.
- 2021 Annulus Vine Hill Ranch Vineyard Cabernet Sauvignon ($250): From the prestigious Vine Hill Ranch, this Cabernet shines with layered notes of blackberry, cassis, and a touch of tobacco. It's beautifully structured, with firm tannins and a long, velvety finish. A true reflection of its vineyard, this wine offers both finesse and power.
- 2021 Annulus Napa Valley Cabernet Sauvignon ($175): A quintessential Napa Cabernet, this wine delivers vibrant fruit flavors of plum and blackberry, supported by well-integrated oak and hints of vanilla. Medium to full-bodied, it's approachable yet complex, perfect for both early drinking and cellaring.

- 2021 Palisades Canyon Cabernet Sauvignon ($185): A bold Cabernet from the rugged Palisades Canyon, this wine is full of intense black fruit flavors and smoky undertones. Its firm tannic structure and earthy depth make it an ideal candidate for aging, while still being enjoyable in its youth.
- 2021 Palisades Canyon Chenin Blanc ($75): This Chenin Blanc is a refreshing white with bright acidity, offering flavors of citrus zest, green apple, and subtle floral notes. Its clean, crisp profile makes it a delightful pairing for seafood or light appetizers.
- 2021 Palisades Canyon Shiraz ($85): A rich and robust Shiraz, bursting with dark berries, pepper, and smoky spice. The velvety tannins and bold flavors make this wine a standout, offering both intensity and balance. Perfect for pairing with grilled meats or hearty dishes.
