

Robb Report

The 19 Best Gifts for Wine Lovers in Your Life

From rare bottle sets to the best accessories, here's what true oenophiles want this holiday season.

By Mike DeSimone and Jeff Jenssen

Wine lovers are the easiest people on your list to shop for: You never have to worry about whether your gift is going to fit or not! We've scoured top sources for the best ideas for the oenophiles on your list, and if you see something here that you want for yourself, it's never too early to start dropping hints. From unique boxed sets to the latest accessories and glasses, we have you covered in your search for the perfect toast-worthy holiday gift.

Annulus Cabernet Lovers' Trio

ANNULUS

Crafted by renowned master blender Michel Rolland and sought-after consulting winemaker Nigel Kinsman, Annulus's first release of its sumptuous trio of Cabernet Sauvignons was received with great fanfare by the wine press. Consisting of two single vineyard bottlings from the Vine Hill Ranch Vineyard in Oakville and Beckstoffer Las Piedras Vineyard at the foot of Spring Mountain and a Napa Valley Cabernet Sauvignon sourced from select lots in Stags Leap District and Diamond Mountain plus heritage fruit from top sites throughout the valley, it's almost certain that your favorite wine drinker doesn't have any of this in their cellar yet. For a special treat, you can bring the whole package up a notch and provide a beautiful and useful souvenir by upgrading to the optional wooden box.