

Wine Spectator

TOP 100 LISTS

We’ve just revealed our Top 100 of 2024!

Each year, Wine Spectator editors survey the wines reviewed over the previous 12 months and select our Top 100, based on quality, value, availability and excitement. This annual list honors successful wineries, regions and vintages around the world.

Here you’ll find every Top 100 list from 2024 back to the debut year, 1988. Since then, new regions, grapes and styles have appeared on the list and risen in the ranks. In 2024, a Chilean wine attained the No. 1 spot for only the second time in the list’s history, while 35 wines earned a spot on the Top 100 for the first time.

99	 Annulus Cabernet Sauvignon Napa Valley Vine Hill Ranch Vineyard This is rich and dense, offering steeped plum, black currant and boysenberry reduction notes welded together with graphite, licorice root and walnut husk accents. There's a broad feel and a deep tug of warm loam through the finish, with ample energy in reserve. Among the more backward wines of the vintage, though, so be prepared to wait. Best from 2026 through 2042. 307 cases made. —JM ☐ I have tasted this wine ☐ I want to taste this wine	2021	96	$250
----	--	------	----	-------